

A Quick Guide to

STUDENT

SUPPORTS // AT CAMOSUN

Financial Aid & Awards

Visit Financial Aid & Awards to learn about the financial resources available to you, as well as tips and tools to help with working, budgeting, and managing your funding.

-  camosun.ca/financialaid
-  financialaid@camosun.ca
-  250-370-3550

Press 4 to leave a voicemail and they will return your call.

Camosun College Student Society (CCSS)

camosunstudent.org

The CCSS provides a range of programs and services to support students, including UPass, Health and Dental, Foodbank, Student Collectives, Walk Safer, Clubs, and more.

-  camosunstudent.org
-  ccss@camosunstudent.org

We're here to help you succeed in and out of the classroom!

camosun.ca/students

Centre for Accessible Learning (CAL)

Academic accommodations and related services are available to students with a documented disability. If you need accommodation to remove barriers to your education, please contact CAL as soon as you can.

-  camosun.ca/accessible-learning
-  accessible@camosun.ca
-  250-370-3312 (Lansdowne)
250-370-4049 (Interurban)

Counselling Centre

The professional counselling team at Camosun can provide confidential mental health support as you move through your learning journey. Personal counselling is offered free to all registered students at Camosun.

-  camosun.ca/counselling
-  250-370-3571 or 250-370-4925

Help Centres

Get academic support for all levels of English, Math, and Science courses at Camosun's Help Centres. We provide one-on-one tutoring and tips and tools to help you succeed. Visit our website to learn about the best ways to connect with us online!

 camosun.ca/help-centres

Writing Centre & Learning Skills

The Writing Centre & Learning Skills team provides supports to help you become a successful student. Get assistance with your academic writing or meet with a learning skills specialist to help with time management, preparing for exams and more.

 camosun.ca/writing-centre

 writingcentre@camosun.ca

Academic Advising

Academic Advisors help you understand the "big picture" of your education while presenting strategic decisions you need to consider for your specific academic and career goals.

 camosun.ca/academic-advising

Eyē? Sqâ'lewen

The Centre for Indigenous Education & Community Connections (IECC)

IECC offers support services for Indigenous students, and students in our Indigenous programs. IECC provide links between Camosun College, students, First Nations, Inuit, and Métis communities, and local Indigenous organizations.

Indigenous Advisors can provide educational, financial, and cultural guidance, and are here to support students along their academic journey.

 camosun.ca/iecc

 indigenous@camosun.ca

Library

The library provides a rich collection of print, media and electronic resources. Librarians can help save you time and empower you to find the information resources needed for your research papers and assignments. Book an appointment online for one-on-one help; send us your library and research related questions by email; or use AskAway, the online research help chat service. Visit the Library website for the most up-to-date information about the services we provide.

 camosun.ca/library

 library@camosun.ca

Sexual Violence Support & Education

Survivors of sexual violence or misconduct have supports and services available at Camosun. The Office of Student Support can give referrals to on-campus supports, off-campus resources, and options for reporting and resolution under the college's Sexual Violence and Misconduct policy.

-  camosun.ca/oss
-  oss@camosun.ca
-  250-370-3311

Co-op Education & Career Services

Camosun offers co-operative education and career resources and support to students and alumni to help navigate their career journey. Many programs at Camosun offer a co-op, internship, or other applied learning component that allows you to apply what you've learned in your classes to the workplace.

By logging into Camosun's Co-op and Career Portal you can find job postings and information about career events and workshops, as well as make an appointment with a co-op and career expert to receive individual help.

-  camosun.ca/coop
-  educationthatworks@camosun.ca

Camosun International

Camosun's International Department welcomes students and partners from around the world. The International Department offers supports and services for international students in areas such as academic advising, work permits, tuition fees, and so much more! Camosun's International staff combine their knowledge and talents to meet the needs of International students, whatever they may be.

-  camosun.ca/international
-  250-370-3681 (Lansdowne)
250-370-4812 (Interurban)

Orientation & Transitions

The Orientation and Transitions team focuses on providing students with the information and resources they need to adapt to post-secondary education and increase their chances of success by, facilitating the transition of new students to the institution, preparing students for the institution's educational opportunities, and increase students awareness of their rights and responsibilities.

-  camosun.ca/orientation
-  orientation@camosun.ca

Ombudsperson

The Ombudsperson is an impartial, independent office which provides confidential support to help resolve Camosun-related concerns, complaints, and disputes. The Ombudsperson guides students through Camosun's policies and procedures, and also advocates for fairness and equity.

-  camosun.ca/ombuds
-  ombuds@camosun.ca

Fitness and Recreation

Camosun offers gym facilities, personal training, fitness classes, and sports equipment for short term loan to support your health and well-being.

-  camosun.ca/fitness
-  fit@camosun.ca

Information Technology Services (ITS)

The Information Technology Services division provides computing, networking, security, audiovisual, printing and many other technology services to support your education.

-  camosun.ca/its
-  itsservicedesk@camosun.ca
-  250-370-3064

The Office of Student Support

The Office of Student Support works collaboratively with students, staff, faculty and community partners to guide and support students on their learning journey toward student success. The Office of Student Support leads Camosun's prevention and response efforts regarding sexual and gender-based violence and student misconduct concerns, supporting a safe, respectful, and inclusive environment for all.

-  camosun.ca/oss
-  oss@camosun.ca
-  250-370-3311

